

EECAP WebPoll Results on Issues Concerning Advisory Board

1. Do you believe that EEOICPA is being administered as Congress intended?
  - a. 100% No
  - b. 0% Yes
2. The IOM Review of the SEM strongly recommends that an expert advisory board, external of DOL and their contractor, be established to, in part, oversee the SEM. Do you support an Independent Advisory Board for Part E?
  - a. 100% Yes
  - b. 0% No
3. Who should determine which Part E issues the Advisory Board on Toxic Substances and Worker Health investigates?
  - a. 58% EEOICPA Stakeholders
  - b. 38% Advisory Board members
  - c. 4% Department of Labor
4. Has a DOL District Medical Consultant (DMC) overruled your physician's letter/scientific evidence supporting your claim?
  - a. 86% Yes
  - b. 14% No
5. Have you had problems getting reimbursed for medical expenses or getting your medical bills paid through EEOICPA?
  - a. 67% Yes, I have had trouble getting my medical providers paid.
  - b. 33% Yes, I have had trouble with being reimbursed for medical expenses.
  - c. 0% No
6. Do you feel the changes DOL has proposed to EEOICPA Rules will benefit claimants and provide more transparency and clarity?
  - a. 91% No
  - b. 9% Not Sure
  - c. 0% Yes
7. DOL has proposed holding the Advisory Board for Toxic Substances and Worker Health Board meetings at federal buildings such as DOL district office buildings. Would you be most likely to attend a meeting at:
  - a. 86% A hotel conference room similar to where the NIOSH board meetings are held
  - b. 14% The Cleveland, Denver, Jacksonville or Seattle District Office Building